

Pastel Artists of Hawaii

Pastel Artists of Hawaii (PAH) is an educational, publicly supported, non-profit 501(c)3 organization, established in 2001 to primarily promote awareness of soft pastel as a serious art medium, and secondarily, to develop and maintain a national society standing. To reach these goals, we sponsor an annual open-juried exhibition each June, in which an invited, experienced artist juries, presents awards and teaches an educational workshop.

In addition to this, we periodically sponsor seminars and local workshops, such as those given by Pastel Society of America members Jason Chang, Colette Ody Smith, Sally Strand, Terry Ludwig, Desmond O'Hagan, Richard McKinley, Gregory Biolchini, Alan Flattmann, and Mark Norseth and Mei Ki Kam, local artists. All this requires funding and in this regard, we encourage membership and donations. All dues and donations are tax deductible.

You are invited to become a member of PAH. As a member, you will receive a subscription to the "Pastel Paper" newsletter, a listing in the PAH members directory, and a discount in the PAH show entry fees. You can also have your own email account and gallery page or link to your own Web site on the pastelartistsofhawaii.org.

As a member, you will be encouraged to participate by entering and helping in any of PAH's events and/or positions. Your active participation in the society should help in furthering your career in the arts by giving you the opportunity to learn and interact with other artists.

For membership information, call Valerie Kiste at 395-9397 or email kistevm@hotmail.com.
